 - ii. Rodeo will be considered an unofficial entry.
 - iii. No year–end awards or advancement to NFR OPEN (NCFR) or NCFSR.
2. Entries for all Circuit Finals Rodeos will be listed in at least two (2) issues of the PRCA Business Journal (as published on the WPRA Website for WPRA members).
3. All contestants must make an official entry through Central Entry Office (PROCOM) prior to entry closing time.
4. Qualification Cut-off:
- a. Qualification cut–off will be regular PRCA or WPRA year–end (September 30, 2023) unless Circuit Finals Rodeo is scheduled within thirty (30) days of this cut–off date.
 - b. In this case (or anytime a Circuit Finals Rodeo is held prior to year–end cut–off), cut–off date will be thirty (30) days prior to the First performance of the Circuit Finals Rodeo. Any exception to the cut-off date for a particular circuit must be approved in writing by the Director of Rodeo Administration.
 - c. Any rodeo which has its last performance after the cut–off date will be recorded for the following year. Rodeo in question must end on or prior to the cut–off date to count for current year.
 - d. Any variation of cut–off dates must be approved by the PRCA and listed in two (2) issues of the PRCA Business Journal. For WPRA members, any variation of cut-off dates must be approved by the WPRA and published on the WPRA website.

5. Team Roping:
 - a. Top qualifying headers who satisfy the Required Participation Rule must rope with the top qualifying heelers who satisfy the Required Participation Rule at the Circuit Finals Rodeo.
 - b. If a team member enters the Circuit Finals Rodeo and has not satisfied the Required Participation Rule or does not qualify due to the order of his ranking, after entries close, that team member will be drawn out and the next qualifier in order of the standings who enters the Circuit Finals Rodeo will be added.
 - c. Teams who wish to compete at the Circuit Finals Rodeo must enter together through PROCOM.
 - d. A team of ropers qualifying in the last position that chooses not to rope as a team at their Circuit Finals Rodeo will flip a coin to determine which will be the qualifier.
 - e. If a team member has roped as a header and a heeler during the rodeo year, his count will be combined but his money will remain separate.
6. Entries to Fill Open Position(s):
 - a. There will be an established re-entry period for any open positions.
 - i. Positions will be filled in accordance with B9.4.5.
 - ii. Re-entry contestants will not displace any originally entered contestant regardless of money won or participation requirements.
 - b. Entries to fill open position(s) after re-entries may be accepted by Circuit President(s).
 - i. Step one, in order of Required Participation Rodeo Rule with money won from those who had not entered.
 - ii. Step two, by contestants who did not meet the Required Participation Rodeo Rule with money won from those who had not entered.
 - c. In the WPRA Barrel Racing, open position after the original entry period will be filled by the circuit president (there will not be re-entries in the WPRA barrel racing).

- i. Step one, in order of Required Participation Rodeo Rule with money won from those who had not entered.
 - ii. Step two, by contestants who did not meet the Required Participation Rodeo Rule with money won from those who had not entered.
 - d. Contestant entries accepted by the circuit presidents must be financially eligible and in good standings at the time of entry closing to be eligible to fill open position(s).
- 7. Substitutions:
 - a. Prior to the First go-round, a substitute entry will be allowed.
 - b. Substitutes will be the highest ranked eligible contestants available who have made an official entry through PROCOM.
 - c. PROCOM and/or the Circuit President will contact highest ranked eligible contestant who entered. Procom will only recognize circuit president making substitute entry.
 - d. Team roping substitutions:
 - i. Any team entered in the team roping event at the Circuit Finals Rodeo suffering disabling injury or illness to either partner during the time period of the Circuit Finals Rodeo may be allowed to continue roping with a substitute partner chosen from among the following options: (i) the non-injured/non-ill partner (the “original partner”) may choose to add the next highest ranked contestant who is not already participating in the Circuit Finals Rodeo team roping and who has not declined to participate in the Circuit Finals Rodeo team roping due to injury or illness, who is in the same category of competitors as the injured or ill partner (i.e., header or heeler), who is Financially Eligible and Competition Eligible, and has satisfied the requirements of the Required Participation Rule (as defined in the PRCA Bylaws) and who has confirmed entry in the Circuit Finals Rodeo; or (ii) any contestant entered in the Circuit Finals Rodeo but not already competing in team roping.
 - ii. If the next highest ranked individual who qualifies under option (i) is not available or is unwilling to participate, the original partner must choose a replacement from category (ii). If the original partner chooses the next highest ranked header or heeler under option (i) above and that substitute partner is willing to participate but is unable to arrive in time for the next scheduled performance, the original partner may turn out of the next scheduled performance.

- iii. If the original partner chooses a replacement partner under option (i), the replacement partner shall be eligible to win the Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion in the team roping header or heeler category but shall not be eligible for All–Around points. If the original partner chooses a replacement partner under option (ii), the replacement partner will not be eligible for the team roping Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion, nor will the replacement partner’s points earned in the team roping apply to the All–Around Standings.
 - iv. For replacement partners chosen under option (i), the Circuit Finals Rodeo will be considered an official entry and money won will count toward PRCA World Standings and qualifications for limited entry rodeos.
 - v. For replacement partners chosen under option (ii), the Circuit Finals Rodeo will be considered an unofficial entry and money won will not count toward PRCA World Standings or qualifications for limited entry rodeos.
 - vi. Regardless of whether the replacement partner comes from category (i) or (ii), the newly formed team will be eligible for go–round money, but will only be eligible for the average pay–off if this newly formed team competes in all go–rounds. The original member of the newly formed team will be eligible for the team roping Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship, and points won will be applied to the All–Around Standings for the original partner if he meets the criteria outlined in Bylaw B13.2 and other applicable sections of the PRCA Rulebook.
 - vii. Once a substitute has competed, the original team cannot be reformed.
- e. If not enough eligible contestants enter, then PROCOM and/or the Circuit President will contact highest ranked eligible contestant according to Circuit standings.
 - f. The substitute entry will take the original position of the contestant being replaced.
