Health requirement papers must not expire while the animal is still on the grounds. All animals must be compliant with current Utah State Animal Health Commission rules, and requirements are subject to change. No exceptions. Contestants must abide by the Utah Days of '47 Rodeo regulations for entry and exit with animals. Individuals who violate animal entry policies will be subject to immediate ejection from the premises.
9. All contestants must park where designated in the competitor's parking area.
10. All contestants must wear a Utah Days of '47 Rodeo patch while competing if provided.
11. TIMED EVENTS CONTESTANTS: Are not allowed in the arena at any time other than while competing or a predesignated practice session.
12. All areas behind the chutes will be considered part of the arena. To gain access to this area, contestants must be dressed according to PRCA rules and have their back numbers visible. Contestants must wear back numbers provided by Utah Days of '47 Rodeo. Back numbers must be clearly visible on the outside of a vest or jacket, always upon entrance to and while in the arena whether competing or not.
13. Only rodeo contestants with a valid contestant number will be allowed behind the chutes and in the chute or arena area. Numbers must be clearly visible. Anyone caught with an invalid number (one not belonging to them) will have that number confiscated. Anyone giving their number to someone else will be disqualified.
14. NO CHILDREN: Are allowed behind chutes, on chute level, or in the arena. No exceptions. This is to ensure the safety of contestants, rodeo personnel, stock and children themselves. Violation will result in immediate removal from the premises.
15. BREAKAWAY: Only the first five contestants will be allowed in the holding area by the box. Arena manager will enforce this and allow those contestants in the arena according to the rodeo secretary's list. After each run, the contestant will leave the arena through the designated exit at the bucking chute end, and another contestant will be allowed in. The contestants not competing will be asked to stay in the holding pen until their turn to compete. Current winners will be asked to return to the holding area for interviews.
16. TIES FOR MEDAL PLACEMENT IN THE FINALS: In the breakaway, ties will be broken by the contestant with the fastest average time in the long rounds.
