Ground Rules

1. The WPRA Texas Breakaway DC Finals sidepot qualifications – the top 12 DC Texas Breakaway finalist card holders from the Texas DC standings will be invited to enter the Texas DC Breakaway Finals. If the top 12 positions are not filled it will drop down to the highest money earner in the Texas DC breakaway circuit standings who entered the Texas DC finals. If the 12 positions are still not filled it will drop down to the highest money earning WPRA Texas Permit holder who entered the DC finals.
2. If there is NTO or release at least 24 hours prior to the jackpot the open position will be filled with the next eligible contestant who entered the DC finals (DC/ProRodeo/Permit). Within 24 hours of the DC Finals it is not guaranteed that spot will be filled.
3. The WPRA Texas Breakaway Finals will be a sidpot to the WPRA breakaway jackpot.
4. The WPRA Texas Breakaway Roping DC finals contestants MUST enter the WPRA open breakaway jackpot in order to enter the WPRA Texas Breakaway Roping Finals sidepot.
5. There will be a $10 office charge that is given to the producer for allowing the WPRA Texas Breakaway Roping DC Finals to be included as a sidepot to their open jackpot.
6. Total entry fee for the Texas DC sidepot will be $160 ($150 in the jackpot and a $10 arena fee to the producer).
7. Added money of $1000 is sponsored by wrangler.
8. The payoff will be as follows
    - $150 to the fastest time in each round (2 rounds)
    - It will pay 4 places on the three head average (40%, 30%, 20%, 10%)
        *1st $1,000
        *2nd $750
        *3rd $500
        *4th $250

9. The WPRA finals open breakaway is one entry.